

Present, Past and Future Passive

✚ Put the following present simple sentences into the passive voice.

1. They make those cars in London.
2. They sell milk in that shop.
3. Does the manager lock the door?
4. He paints the bridge every year.
5. The farmer milks the cows.
6. Does the noise frighten you?
7. Tom doesn't write postcards.
8. Old ladies borrow these books.
9. Why do you open them?
10. They leave the lights on all nights.
11. The postman brings the letters.
12. She throws away empty bottles.
13. You don't study English.
14. He gives my little sister a ticket.

✚ Put the following past simple sentences into the passive voice.

1. The boys ate the sandwiches.
2. They finished the work in time.
3. They gave me a book.
4. Everybody heard the bomb.
5. I paid the electrician for his work.
6. Did the bomb injure many people?
7. Picasso painted the picture.
8. They ordered the prisoners to stand up.
9. They stole the cars.
10. The police arrested the driver.
11. The teacher told the new student where to sit.
12. Where did she put it?
13. He finished his work by 8 o'clock.
14. We gave him a cake for his birthday.

✚ Put the following future simple sentences into the passive voice.

1. Arthur won't type those letters.
2. They will switch on the street-lights at 7:30.
3. He will show the visitors the new buildings.
4. They will tell you what time the train leaves.
5. We won't eat all the food.
6. They will show the visitors the new baby.
7. He will ask the students a very difficult question.
8. They won't tell the students to wait outside.
9. Someone will send Tom to prison.
10. They will give you the answer next week.
11. Will they build a new library?
12. Will you send the letters tomorrow?
13. Susan will send the new books.
14. We won't pay the bill tomorrow.